As an elementary school serving kindergarten and first grade in 2011–12, KIPP Comienza Community Prep students did not take the state criterion-referenced test, which begins in the second grade in California.

In 2011–12, early childhood assessment at KIPP Comienza Community Prep included weekly teacher-developed standards-based assessments and school-based interim assessments at the end of every learning cycle. Early literacy skills and reading growth were assessed using the Developmental Reading Assessment, weekly teacher-developed standards-based assessments, school-based interim assessments, and performance tasks in reading comprehension.

"1+ years of academic progress" only includes grade 1 and reflects spring of 2011 and the spring of 2012.

As an elementary school serving on kindergarten and first grade in 2011–12, KIPP Empower Academy students did not take the state criterion-referenced test, which begins in the second grade in California.

In 2011–12, assessment at KIPP Empower Academy for literacy included the Strategic Teaching and Evaluation of Progress (STEP), Measures of Academic Progress (MAP), SAT–10, istation's Indicators of Progress (ISIP), curriculum-based mastery tests, and guided reading anecdotals. In math, our students were assessed using MAP, SAT–10, curriculum-based unit assessments, standards-based interim assessments, and through our online content providers. Our students' written work was assessed using the 6+1 traits rubric after each writer's workshop unit.

"1+ year of academic progress" reflects spring of 2011 and the spring of 2012.
